

Sinclair Broadcasting Corporation's plans to air an anti-Kerry documentary just prior to the election without balancing it with an anti-Bush documentary of equal length in prime time is a clear violation of their use of public airwaves. I urge the FCC to take immediate action to stop this blatant abuse of a public resource.